My objective is to pursue a legal education and career that will be high impact in areas that have become points of contention in my lifetime. I want to focus on environmental law, immigration, human and civil rights, and make a difference in both individual lives and policies that shape so many people's lives.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Aleksandra H. Bronsted, P.C.; Sexton Law Firm; and

February 2018 - Present

Pankey Horlock, Law Clerk

The AHB Law Firm employed me as a law clerk to do research and draft pleadings and correspondence in the areas of workers' compensation and personal injury law. At Sexton Law Firm, I worked on civil rights cases and researched the tolling of the statute of limitations issues involving civil action arising from crime. At Pankey and Horlock, I worked on employment discrimination cases and learned every part of litigation from complaint to discovery to pretrial orders and motion for summary judgment.

Internships

December 2017 - February 2018

Various internships in journalism, including the Marietta Daily Journal, True Urban Culture Magazine, The Bright Side newspaper, and a restaurant job at Salata.

The Signal at GSU, Intern Staff Writer

October 2017 – December 2017

'The Signal' is a weekly student-run newspaper, and breaking news is routinely covered (example). It's not uncommon for two or three articles to be covered by a single writer over the course of a week.

Digital Projects at GSU, Student Assistant

October 2016 – October 2017

The Digital Projects division of the GSU academic library is responsible for digitizing both important documents stored in the GSU archives and other, independent collections. Over the course of my employment, I digitized about 20 to 30 projects. This involved scanning thousands of documents to create digital images, some of which I prepared for online publication to the GSU database. The goal was to create accurate digital versions of newspapers, manuscripts, photographs, architectural plans and other types of documents for research. (example)

Tupelo Honey Café

July 2016 – October 2016

Assisted with general restaurant cleaning duties to maintain efficient customer service and food distribution. Worked under pressure with team of 5.

Little Alley Steakhouse

June-July 2015

General restaurant cleaning duties. Worked under pressure with a team of 3 or 4.

Sonica Recordings, Intern, Atlanta GA

June 2011

Sonica Recordings is a renowned recording studio in Atlanta that has produced records for musicians and famous public figures like Condoleezza Rice. I worked as a session musician and a recording technician. Specifically, I helped produce pop/punk band 'The Joy Kills's album 'Danced to Death.' (example)
